ITALY—Ralph E. Clark, 6275 Mission street, Daly City, has been promoted to the grade of first lieutenant. Clark, who has been a member of the United States Army since April 4, 1941, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Clark, 251 Wellington avenue, Daly City. Lieutenant Clark entered the Army as an enlisted man and received a field appointment as a commissioned officer while he was serving in North Africa.

A graduate of the San Mateo junior college at San Mateo, he was employed as an automotive mechanic supervisor with the Daly City branch of McKale's Inc., before his entrance into the military service. Today he is an automotive officer with a Fifteenth Air Force Service Command quartermaster truck company. His wife, Mrs. Frances E. Clark, resides at 6275 Mission street, Daly City.

Fifteenth Air Force—Second Lieutenant Michael C. Callan, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Callan, Colma, has been awarded the third Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster for the Air Medal, it was announced by Fifteenth Army Air Force headquarters.

Lieutenant Callan was awarded the cluster "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy." A bombardier, Lieut. Callan is stationed in Italy with a Fifteenth AAF Liberator bombardment squadron which has been bombing Ploesti, Vienna, Steyr, Toulon, Milan, and other strategic targets in the German industrial framework of southern Europe.

A graduate of Saint Mary's college, Moraga, Lieutenant Callan enlisted with the Army Air Forces, May 11, 1942, and received his commission, August 5, 1943. He was stationed at Langley field, Virginia, before leaving the United States.

Mrs. Mary McCleod, 144 Los Olivos avenue, recently received word from her son, Fred H. McCleod, telling of his promotion from sergeant to staff sergeant. He is now somewhere in Australia. In 1942, he completed an intensive course in aviation mechanics at Sheppard field, Texas, an Army Technical Training Command school.

Fifteenth Army Air Force—Second Lieutenant Robert S. Capps, 21, whose wife, Mrs. Barbara Mae Capps, resides at 345 Winchester street, Daly City, has been awarded the second oak leaf cluster to the air medal, it was announced by the Fifteenth Army Air force in Italy.

In the words of the citation, the award was made "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight while participating in sustained operational activities against the enemy."

Lieutenant Capps, a pilot on a B-24 Liberator bomber, entered the service April 24, 1942. He received his air force pilot training at Maxwell field, Alabama; Gunter field, Alabama; and Napier field, Florida, before coming overseas with a group, commanded by Colonel Thomas W. Steed of Etowah, Tennessee.

He has been flying on Fifteenth Army Air force bombing missions which are destroying Nazi supply lines and installations.

Mrs. Morris Vercauteren, 165 Miriam street, has just returned from Holtville, California, where she visited her son, Edward M. Vercauteren, U. S. Navy. She brought back with her the Presidential unit citation which Vercauteren, along with other members of a United States ship, received for outstanding performance. The ship Vercauteren was on participated in nearly every major carrier engagement in the first year of the war. In connection with it he received another battle ribbon, red, yellow and blue with a blue star. He already had received nine service stars (Continued on Page 12)

Daly City's Council Meeting, Monday Night, Was Brief, Peaceful, Abrupt

Monday night's regular Daly City Council meeting at the city hall was brief, peaceful, and abrupt. Both business and conversation were at a minimum.

Mayor A. J. Gaggero called the session to order at 8:25 p. m. and it was adjourned within the half-hour. In addition to the mayor the official family was represented by Councilmen B. L. Meritt, Eugene V. Lynch, Howard A. McHugh, and Edward J. Dennis; Superintendent of the Water Works Arthur J. Bodien, Deputy Health Officer Fred Collins, City Engineer R. A. Klassen, City Clerk B. C. Ross.

Minutes of the June 26 meeting were read and approved as read.

Under communications, the city council heard an application for a position on the local police force from Frank Palmieri, who recently resigned from the Millbrae police department. It was filed. The mayor asked the clerk to advise the county tax collector that the city wished to realize $40.06 for back taxes on a Wellington avenue lot which the collector proposed to sell.

An invitation to the dinner meeting of the Peninsula division, League of California Cities, was read. The council and several city officials indicated they would attend the session at the St. Claire hotel, San Jose, July 20, 6:45 p. m.

The gasoline consumption report was filed. There were no resolutions and no ordinances.

Under unfinished business the mayor pointed out that nothing had been done about condemnation proceedings against the Fish properties on Los Olivos avenue. Councilman Meritt made a motion that the city attorney be authorized to proceed under the resolution of condemnation passed several months ago. It was unanimously passed.

The claims were read and Councilman Meritt moved that a warrant be drawn and the claims paid. It was unanimously adopted as was one for adjournment made immediately afterwards by Councilman McHugh.

Draft Board 103 Studies Problems

Classification problems were discussed at the Friday night, July 7, meeting of Daly City Draft Board No. 103. Commander F. Edward Walker, district coordinator, was present. He revealed that a summer period of light calls is anticipated.

The entire board was in attendance, Dr. J. C. McGovern, chairman; Fred A. Collins, secretary; Sergeant Otto A. Schramm, Clarence W. Peterson, and Fred B. Keyston.

There was no meeting, this week, on Tuesday evening, the regular meeting night. Next session will take place, Tuesday evening, July 18, at the city hall.

The local board will supply 48 men to take pre-induction physical examinations, Saturday, July 29, and four men for actual induction into the armed forces, Friday, July 28, according to Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk.

Park Recreation Program Popular

The summer recreation program for elementary-school-age pupils at Lincoln park is averaging a daily attendance of 75, according to Mrs. Betty Otton, director.

Crafts have been started and have been received with enthusiasm by the children.

Hours at Lincoln park for the supervised play project are 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., Monday through Friday, and 10 a. m. to noon, Saturday.

Girl Scout Council To Meet, Monday Night

Girl Scout Council for the Daly City-Colma area will hold its first meeting, Monday night, July 17, at the home of Mrs. Cecelia Hale, 599 Crocker avenue. Mrs. Stella Jensen, commissioner, and Miss Norma Northberg, national Girl Scout field advisor, will both be present. The session will begin at 8 p. m.

Final organizational details and the selection of a name for the council will be on the list of items to be discussed at the meeting.

Prospective council members were introduced to troop leaders and committeewomen, Wednesday evening, June 28.

Colma Council Prepares To Act

Action which may result in removal of the much-discussed hog ranches from the incorporated area of Colma, was begun at Monday's monthly session of the town council. Probable action will be the declaration of the ranches as public nuisances, and the setting of a time limit for their removal. At present there are two such ranches operating within the incorporated limits.

Health Inspector C. E. Lowe presented copies of the new county ordinance, which sets up prohibitive conditions under which such businesses might operate outside municipal areas, and considerable discussion was given to dealing with the problem locally. The ranches have been the subject of continual reports and protests by the California State Health department, as well as county and local authorities for a number of years.

City Attorney Charles Gebhardt was instructed to have ready, for next month's meeting, a draft for an ordinance which would have the effect of removing the offending businesses from the area. The council plans a hearing with the ranchers to work out a method whereby the removal may be made with the least personal loss to parties concerned.

Annual audit of municipal books was ordered, with City Clerk E. A. Weisenburger instructed to secure an auditor and have the work done before the August session.

Mayor Fred Lane presided over the meeting, and also in attendance were Councilmen Mattstrup Jensen, Peter Barsi and Bartley Flynn, as well as Lowe, Gebhardt, Weisenburger, and City Treasurer Henry Kempf.

Elementary Dist. Board Reorganizes

At the July meeting of the Jefferson Elementary School District Board of Trustees new teachers were appointed and the board reorganization took place. George R. Augustien and William J. Sweeney were re-elected chairman and clerk respectively.

Instructors appointed to replace faculty members who resigned at the close of last term include Miss Coreen Doney, Mrs. Barbara Smith, and Miss Betty Rolph for Woodrow Wilson; Mrs. Florence Driskell, who returns to Pershing after a year's absence; Miss Frances Neece, Jefferson annex.

The board announces that its regular meeting will be held the second Sunday of each month at 10 a. m. in the administration building, 364 Santa Barbara avenue.

MAY PROTEST

A group of taxpayers met, last night, July 12, to consider the presentation of a protest over the removal of James G. Reardon as police chief. What action they contemplated was not stated.

Arrives in Daly City

Stanford Hannah, above, recently appointed principal of Jefferson Union high school, arrived in Daly City to assume his new duties, this week.

Hannah was formerly principal of Taft Union high school at Taft, California.

Here Are More Honor Roll Names

The Record, this week, presents the names of those members of the armed forces which did not appear in the Independence Day tribute. Parents or friends phoned in the information. The Record appreciates this courtesy because, as it explained, last week, the newspaper's list is incomplete, despite the several hundred names in its file. Reports giving it an opportunity to correct other omissions will be appreciated. Phone RAndolph 3215.

Report of Police, Fire Incidents

Daly City Police officers neatly averted a neighborhood row, last week, when they tactfully suggested that the owner of a noisy rooster eliminate complaints which they had been receiving by putting it in the rooster. This solution seemed satisfactory to everyone, with the possible exception of the rooster.

Acting Chief William Bolger, Officers George Savage and August Benassini assisted Company No. 1 and Company No. 4, D. C. F. D., in putting out a grass fire at Peoria street and Bellevue avenue, July 6, at 5:55 p. m. July 8 at 6:15 p. m. Sergeant Ricco Benedetti and Officer Savage responded to assist Company No. 1 and Company No. 4, D. C. F. D., with a fire which broke out in the dump at the end of Lowell street.

Three fire companies, No. 1, 2, and 4, rushed to the Central club, 6282 Mission street, July 9, at 2:59 p. m. when someone pulled Box 15. A short in a pinball machine had caused a lot of smoke but no serious blaze resulted.

A false alarm called out Company No. 1 and Company No. 6, D. C. F. D., July 10, 6:44 p. m. It was from the box at Mission and East Cavour streets. Company No. 1 and Company No. 2 put out a grass fire at Westlake avenue and Miriam street, July 6, at 12:25 p. m.

Drive Continues Until End Of Month

Daly City's War Bond sales totaled $147,894.75, Tuesday of this week, $27,105.25 short of its $175,000 quota. This figure may have been considerably bettered, yesterday, upon receipt of an expected $20,000 allocation.

Although the official closing day of the Fifth War Loan drive has passed, men and women of Daly City still have an opportunity of averting their threatened failure in achieving the goal set for sales to individuals.

This was pointed out in a telegram to Walter J. Lehigh, local war finance chairman, by W. W. Crocker, chairman of the Treasury's War Finance Committee for Northern California.

Crocker explained that all individual sales of series E, F and G bonds and series C tax notes, reported to the Federal Reserve Bank by July 31, will be credited to Northern California's quota for individuals, leaving the state still three weeks to avert impending failure.

The drive closed with Northern California still far short of the goal set for buying of bonds by individuals.

Crocker in his statement said: "The Treasury at Washington, in planning the Fifth War Loan drive, placed a very definite responsibility on the shoulders of the individual citizen of America. It decided that they must buy, individually, 6 billion dollars in war bonds."

"Our brave fighting men on far-flung battlefronts are meeting their responsibility. They are meeting it at the pain of death and suffering. The man in the foxhole does not say, 'Let the rich fellow do it—leave the enemy to the corporations.'"

"Similarly, we must meet the challenge of our own responsibilities. I appeal now to every man, woman and child in Northern California to rise to the needs of the hour and buy war bonds—more bonds and still more. Let's back the attack in deed. Let's put our patriotism into action."

Lehigh urges local residents to intensify their efforts to enable Daly City to reach its goal. He thanked all who have cooperated by "buying more than before."

A retail committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lehigh, has been contacting merchants of the community. Names of those buying bonds through the committee members, since July 6, will be published in next week's Record.

Brownies and Girl Scouts of Daly City will take over the War Bond sales booth at the Daly City theatre, July 16, through July 22. They will wear their uniforms and will make every effort to step up sales at the theatre to help Daly City make its $175,000 quota.

Colma District Well Beyond Goal

Mrs. M. Pauline Brown, war finance chairman for Colma district, reported, early this week, that the area had passed the $125,000 mark, $25,000 beyond its quota of $100,000 for the Fifth War Loan drive. Workers have continued their efforts, however, in an attempt to increase the number of E bonds purchased, as the Treasury department wished particular stress laid on the sale of bonds to individuals, during this drive.

Both Colma incorporated and Colma unincorporated are included in Colma district. Chairman for the Fifth War Loan drive is John Ferrari, Colma branch, Bank of America.

SUNDAY BASEBALL

Baseball games scheduled for Marchbank park, Sunday, July 16, include the Daly City Juniors versus the Blitmore Luggage, at 11 a. m., and the San Francisco Police department against the Floating Drydocks of Sausalito, at 2:30 p. m.

the money from a "juke" box. July 7, at 7:45 p. m., Paul G. Selmi, 39 Wellington avenue, reported that his 1936 Chevrolet sedan had been stolen from in front of 6714 Mission street, between 6:30 and 7:30 p. m. Local police broadcast the report but early this week recovery had not been made.

July 8 at 7:10 a. m. Officers Roland A. Petrocchi and Roy Beecher investigated a burglary reported by Frank "Pop" Weighand at Hollywood Stables. They found that the place had been entered after prying open the front door. A silver mounted saddle and bridle valued at $750 were missing, as were three other western saddles and one English saddle. The San Francisco Police and the sheriff's office were notified by the local officers.

July 9 at 6:45 a. m. Officers Petrocchi and Beecher investigated when the proprietor of the Fat Boy Barbecue called and said someone had entered his place of business. The police found that the "juke" box had been broken and all the cash stolen. Entry was probably gained through a kitchen window, they said. The proprietor stated that three men were involved and all made a getaway in a car parked at First avenue and Price street at 6 a. m. Only one man had entered the restaurant and the description of him was incomplete.

San Mateo County War Chest Lays Preliminary Plans For 1944 Campaign

"Preliminary plans are being prepared for the 1944 San Mateo County War Chest campaign," announced Judge Aylett R. Cotton, county chairman, "which will take place early in October. Definite dates for the drive will be announced later."

The second county-wide War Chest drive will seek funds for the USO, United Seamen's Service, War Prisoners Aid, sixteen United Nations relief agencies, and local home-front services.

In making public this announcement of the 1944 campaign, the chairman emphasized the importance of home-front strength to success on the battle line. "We cannot all share directly in land, sea and air combat, but many essential jobs on the home front remain for those of us who cannot fight," he declared.

"The War Chest, which finances vital services, gives each of us here at home an opportunity to share in an important war-time endeavor.

"For the coming campaign, we need the aid of citizens who will share their time as well as their dollars. An army of volunteer workers will be called upon to do this essential war job, and I have sincere faith that the residents of San Mateo county will come forward to offer their services."

Two national war-relief agencies—America Denmark Relief and American Relief for Italy—have been added to the 1943 list of organizations included in the drive, bringing to nineteen the total number of National War Fund agencies which receive financial aid from local contributions.

"The National War Chest goal is $250,000,000," E. H. Cosgriff, president of the chest, stated. "More than half of the funds raised for national war-related causes will go to the three organizations serving America's armed forces—USO, War Prisoners Aid, and United Seamen's Service. United Nations relief agencies included in the campaign are Belgian War Relief society, British War Relief society, United China Relief, United Czechoslovak Relief, American Denmark Relief, French Relief fund, Greek War Relief association, American Relief for Italy, Friends of Luxembourg, American Relief for Norway, Polish War Relief, Queen Wilhelmina fund, Russian War Relief, United Yugoslav Relief fund, Refugee Relief Trustees, and the U. S. Committee for the Care of European Children.

"IN THIS CORNER—"

The presidential challenger, Thomas E. Dewey of New York, together with his able second, Governor John Bricker of Ohio, has climbed into the national political ring. The present "champion," President Roosevelt, is expected to follow in mid-July. Then the quadrennial battle for the political heavyweight championship of America will get under way in earnest.

Observers agree that the GOP nominees are the most experienced and "ring-wise" opponents Roosevelt has yet confronted. Both have won their present standing by coming up through the political training grounds of districts, cities and states. Dewey punched his way to the top in New York state in 1942 after losing a close decision in 1938, thus becoming the first Republican governor of the Empire State in many years.

Bricker scored a political knockout in Ohio by being elected three times to the governorship. He was considered a certainty to be elected again but withdrew to enter the national political arena.

Indications are that Dewey will do considerably less "foot work" in the coming presidential match than was done by Mr. Roosevelt's opponents in 1936 and 1940. It is said that the New York governor will not make more than half a dozen major speeches—each in a different section of the country. Apparently Dewey intends to throw fewer, but heavier, punches in his bid for the "title."

Both challenger and champion appear in top form for the contest. May the best man win!

CHINA'S SEVEN YEARS

July 7, 1944 is the "triple seven" for China—the seventh day of the seventh month of the year marking the end of seven years of her struggle for survival against Japan.

Back in 1937, the Japs picked up where they had left off temporarily in their earlier attack on China, and set out to "woo" the Chinese into the greater Asia "co-prosperity sphere."

Aside from limited Russian aid and the help of a few American flyers, Chiang Kai Shek and his people were left to fight not only alone, but virtually barehanded. They had to fight directly against Japan and indirectly against the world, since we, and other nations, thought it "good business" to sell war supplies to Tokyo.

With incredible courage and determination the Chinese have fought on against the invaders and against famines, floods and plagues. When we finally entered the war in 1941 it was too late to get effective aid to them.

Now on the seventh anniversary of her life and death struggle, China was never in a more desperate plight. Ravaged by war, weakened by hunger, harassed by wild inflation, China stands on the brink of doom. And the Japs are driving hard for a complete collapse of Chinese resistance.

Admiral Nimitz has promised to strike through to the China coast at the earliest possible moment. But can the Chinese hold out until he gets there? And if they do, will they have the strength to fight toward the coast to support such a landing?

The accumulation of seven unspeakable years of death and destruction are bearing down relentlessly on China. Her resistance this far has been a miracle. We can only hope by some further miracle she will yet survive.

BASTILLE DAY

Bastille Day comes this week, July 14, to a Nazi-ridden France. There and in America many freedom-loving Frenchmen pray that the Army of Liberation, fighting now on the soil of France, soon will restore liberty and independence to that fallen nation.

There is a lesson for all good Americans in the plight of France. The seeds of disunity already had taken root before the Nazi invaders moved into France four years ago.

Traitors within the country, fearing for their own power more than they feared the Nazis, conspired to destroy the nation's unity. The enemy's divide and conquer propaganda soon flowed unchecked throughout the land.

Factionalism multiplied within political parties. Jealousies and dissension mounted in business and labor circles. Anti-Semitism—Jew-baiting—always the first and foremost weapon of the Nazis, rose ominously in France. Deceived, corrupted and torn apart, the French were betrayed by their own leaders.

When Hitler dropped the shams of "un-occupied" France, the people recognized what it meant to live under the heel of the "master race." But today, French men and women, of the French Army of the underground, have found their faith again.

This cycle, violent and cruel in France, has been apparent elsewhere. In some respects we have passed through it here in America. Fascism never gained the saddle in our country but others succumbed to its advance agents—hates and prejudices, Jew-baiting, labor baiting and all the rest.

It is for us, inspired by the Army of Liberation, to realize as the French people have, that we must stand together as partners in winning the free world. We must resist hate and religious prejudices as weapons intended to destroy us.

Ask For Forty To Volunteer As Grey Ladies

An urgent call for forty women to volunteer their services as Grey Ladies in the American Red Cross Hospital and Recreation corps was issued today by Mrs. L. I. Scott, chairman of the Volunteer Special Services of the San Mateo County chapter, American Red Cross, for Mrs. Richard Heilmann, chairman of the Hospital and Recreation corps for the local chapter.

The success of the Hospital and Recreation corps depends on the volunteers themselves, but their abilities and personalities must be directed into the proper channels by training before they can give their best possible service. Their trained service for fullest effectiveness, must, in turn be fitted to need, and these women are needed for the Naval Dispensary at the United States Navy Advance Base Personnel depot at Tanforan to do the many necessary things for the boys who are confined to the hospital there. They will distribute books and magazines, read to the boys, play games with them, mail their packages, plus the many other little things that go to making their convalescence more pleasant.

To qualify for this Hospital and Recreation corps, a woman must be between the ages of 21 and 50, must apply at the Volunteer Special Services headquarters of the American Red Cross, East Santa Inez and El Camino in San Mateo, or telephone San Mateo 4-2533 for an application to be mailed; and following an interview with Mrs. Heilmann must take a course of four lectures and an examination. The lectures will be given Tuesday, July 18; Thursday, July 20; Tuesday, July 25, and Thursday, July 27. Special arrangements will be made by Mrs. Heilmann to interview out-of-town applicants.

Here's What You Do--Just In Case!

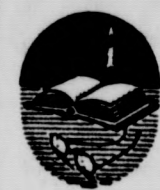

What to do in case you lose your newly issued Federal Use Tax Stamp?

Advice on this question, warns the Touring department of the National Automobile club, may bring back memories of your dentist when he says, "Now I'm going to hurt a little," but here it is.

First, buy another stamp and then apply to the Department of Internal Revenue for a refund on the original one which was either lost or stolen. The object of requiring this is to insure every car having a stamp on the windshield.

The affidavit of loss or theft and the resulting application, explained the Department of Internal Revenue, must include the person's name, address, make of car, model, serial number, license number, number of stamp (if possible), location where stamp was bought and the amount paid.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

The picture on the left-hand corner of this column is usually that of a contemporary writer. This week we are giving the space over to one of our favorite authors of all time. Edgar Allan Poe is a good example—though by no means unique—of an author who couldn't earn a living for himself during his own lifetime and has been earning one for publishers ever since.

He had a desperate time making ends meet, wrote stories, poems, articles, book reviews, even on one occasion a newspaper hoax story about a trans-Atlantic balloon flight—anything to keep the pot boiling. After his death, just 95 years ago, his reputation grew enormously and he became recognized as one of the world's great writers. Imagine his amazement, were he living today, to find his stories distributed as a book-dividend by the Book-of-the-Month Club in a nice little edition of about 300,000 copies. This particular edition of "Tales of Edgar Allan Poe" is especially notable for its introduction by Hervey Allen and its 39 beautiful wood engravings by Fritz Eichenberg.

Adventurous readers, who like to keep in touch with what our younger authors are writing, will want to look into a book titled "Cross-Section," and edited by the first-named writer of this column. "Cross-Section" contains six novelettes, 17 short stories, two full-length plays, a critical essay, and 26 poems—none of which has ever been published before—contributed by some 40 authors. Some of these authors are well-known, Richard Wright, for instance, whose novelette "The Man Who Lived Underground" is his first work of fiction since his famous novel, "Native Son," published some years ago. Ira Wolfert, Pulitzer Prize winning correspondent, and author of one of the best novels last year, "Tucker's People," also has a fascinating novelette, "My Wife The Witch." One of the plays, "The Man Who Had All The Luck," by Arthur Miller, will reach Broadway next September. Many of the contributors to "Cross-Section," however, have never been published before, and it is interesting to note that several have already been offered contracts for novels by leading publishers.

How foreign diplomats gauge world events: Once back in 1940, Ambassador Joseph C. Grew relates in "Ten Years in Japan," he was attending a French Embassy gathering, when Baron Fain, the Embassy Counselor, approached him to ask how his golf was going. "Why is it, my dear Baron," said Grew, "that whenever a colleague or a Japanese opens a talk with me, instead of commenting on the weather he almost always asks about my golf?" Fain replied, "Why, Mr. Ambassador, your golf is the thermometer which measures the temperature in the Diplomatic Corps. If a week goes by without your playing golf, the fact is cabled to every chancellery the world over, for the situation is then indeed critical!"

Jensens Observe 44th Anniversary

Romance was the theme at a beautifully appointed dinner party, Sunday, July 9, when Mr. and Mrs. Matrup Jensen, Colma, celebrated their forty-fourth wedding anniversary. A profusion of gardenias and fern was effectively used in the decorating and an all-white wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the unique three-sided table, at which 21 people were seated.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, who have lived in Colma for the past 41 years, are prominent in civic affairs in the north end of the county. Jensen is general superintendent of Olivet Memorial park, a position he has held since 1903.

Guests who participated in Sunday's happy festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jensen and daughter, Colma; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gohl and daughters, Joane and Paula, Burlingame; Paul Olson, Colma; Mr. and Mrs. C. Barton Nelson, Betty and Keith Nelson, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Whipple, Ellen and Joan Whipple, Burlingame; Mrs. Katherine Wight, Daly City. Sending their congratulations but unable to be present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Jensen and son, Robert, of Willits, and David Nelson, San Francisco.

Mrs. Jensen is now in Los Angeles where she is chairman of the hospitality committee for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, which opened a 2-day session at Hotel Clark in Los Angeles, this week.

This is the second grandchild in 24 years in the Meeth family and her arrival was greeted with much excitement. Name selected for the newcomer is Anna Caroline.

Bank of America Names Advisory Group

Creation of an important new advisory group within the staff of the Bank of America, to be known as the Junior Advisory council, is announced by L. M. Giannini, president of the bank.

The plan will bring the ideas and reactions of outstanding staff members into management deliberations. The group is composed of a revolving membership of nine, individual members to serve terms of 18 months so staggered that three will withdraw and three new ones take their places each six months.

When travel conditions permit, present necessary geographical limitations on membership will be removed, it was stated.

The group is expected to recommend new policies and procedures, or changes in present policies and procedures where believed beneficial, to suggest improvements in operations or services and to promote the development of new services to the public. In addition the council is to encourage suggestions from other members of the staff and will have the power to make cash awards to employees for meritorious ideas.

In his announcement, President Giannini pointed out that service on the council will afford unique opportunity for development of the members themselves by broadening their outlook, exercising their constructive thinking processes and bringing them into closer contact with management and its problems. The group is to assume full responsibility for its operations, Giannini stated, declaring that the senior management "will lean over backwards to make sure that it does not interfere in any way with the council's proper functioning."

"Merry Widow" At SF Opera House

The New Opera company's gay and brilliant production of Lehar's popular musical romance, "The Merry Widow," starring Jan Kiepura, begins the second of its scheduled three-week San Francisco engagement, Monday night, at Memorial Opera house.

The demand for seats for this, the first operetta ever to play the Opera House, has been unprecedented. With Kiepura as the dashing Prince Danile, and Melville Cooper as the inimitable "Popoff" who merrily conspires to snare the lovely widow for Marsovia's heir-apparent, this tuneful story of Paris at its gayest, came direct to San Francisco as the same production which scored such a sensation for a solid year in New York.

For the first time in the classic tradition of this world-famous operetta, the famous "Merry Widow" waltz is staged with a superb singing chorus highlighting the graceful George Balanchine ballet, and is, as usual, the "Show-stopper" of the production. Equally successful is the famous "Maxim's" scene with its spritely can-can dancers, and the electrifying rendition of the Polish song "Kuiawiak," by Kiepura, which climaxes an operetta offering of true distinction.

Performances of "The Merry Widow" will be given nightly at the Opera House, with matinees this Sunday, next Sunday, and the following Wednesday and Saturday.

KEEP OUT 10 to 20% SUMMER HEAT

KEEP IN UP TO 30% WINTER HEAT

CONSERVE FUEL . . .

If you had a leaky roof on your home—you would fix the leak mighty soon, wouldn't you? Fixing leaks saves money.

Insulating your home is like fixing a leaking roof. When you heat your house without insulation, for example, heat rises and seeps through the ceiling plaster and leaks up through the attic and roof. Insulation blankets-in house heating and helps check heat loss. Insulation also helps prevent summer heat from seeping down from the hot attic and through the whole house. Year 'round—year in and year out—Insulation will save you money and add to health and comfort.

It will pay you to Insulate the ceilings in your home. Insulation may save as much as 30% in heating costs next winter. And by stopping this heat waste you help conserve fuel that is vitally needed in war production.

The new light-weight Insulating materials, now available without restriction, are low in cost. Special F.H.A. terms are in effect. Easy monthly payments start November 1st. Insulate now—save money.

"HERE'S ONE JOB YOU MEN WON'T BE ASKED BACK AFTER THE WAR."

Ice Cream At Home

Perhaps you cannot purchase as much ice cream at the corner store as you did before the war, but that does not necessitate an ice cream shortage in your home.

After all, the art of making ice cream did not pass out with grandmother's old crank freezer. In fact, modern refrigeration has probably doubled or tripled the amount of this delicacy prepared at home. Today, old crank freezers are being oilied and used, while electric refrigerators are humming a tune as they freeze rays of ice cream for the evening meal.

An ordinary household rennet tablet, some light (yes, light) cream, a little sugar, water and vanilla — that's all you need to try the modern recipe below.

Homemade Vanilla Ice Cream

(Automatic Refrigerator)

1 rennet tablet

1 tablespoon cold water

2 cups light cream

½ cup sugar

1½ teaspoons vanilla

Dissolve rennet tablet by crushing in cold water.

Mix light cream, sugar and vanilla. Warm slowly, stirring constantly. When COMFORTABLY WARM, (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat.

Add dissolved rennet tablet and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid, into refrigerator tray. Let stand at room temperature until set — about 10 minutes.

Place in freezing compartment. Freeze until firm. Remove from tray to a bowl, break up with a fork and beat with electric or rotary beater until free from hard lumps but still a thick mush. Finish freezing.

Open Telephone Center, July 10

A new Telephone Center for servicemen was opened at the U. S. Naval Drydock at Hunters Point, July 10, by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Designed for the convenience of men who wish to make local or long distance telephone calls, the new center is one of a total of 38 provided by the telephone company in military and naval establishments in the Northern California area.

The new Telephone Center will be complete with lounging chairs, magazines, writing materials and other appointments to provide for the comfort of servicemen. A directory library will be available for Pacific coast and other points. Attendants will be on duty to assist men with their calls and to provide information.

In announcing the opening, Lyle M. Brown, division manager for the telephone company, spoke particularly of the helpful cooperation of the Navy personnel in working out the plans and allocating the space for the installation of equipment.

Native Daughters, Sons To Install

Plans are being formulated for the joint installation ceremonies to be held by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and El Carmelo Parlor No. 256, Native Sons of the Golden West, Wednesday, July 19. Presidents-elect Adele Wood and James Millen and their corps of officers will be installed at that time during a public meeting in Masonic temple, 17 Hillcrest drive.

El Carmelo Parlor, Native Daughters, was in charge of the War Bond booth at the Daly City theatre, July 3 to July 8. Sales were considerably stimulated in an effort to help toward the quota set for the Fifth War Loan drive by the assistance of the following members: Margaret Steele, Barbara Vernengo, Florence Becker, Marie Hozerheiden, Ruth Biggio, Marge Cloney, Betty Czerwinski, Lucille Wohler, and Hattie Kelly, chairman.

At their last regular meeting, June 27, Mrs. Alma Parmisano was the recipient of a cash gift.

A communication from the American Education league, signed by Dr. Lechner, described as a well-known authority on the Japanese situation, was endorsed by the local parlor. The entire membership have agreed to contact their congressmen protesting the effort being made to relax the restrictions on Japanese held at War Relocation centers.

According to the publicity committee of the parlor the members feel that a serious crisis will arise if the Japanese now living at Relocation centers are allowed to return to their homes.

Girl Scouts Receive Chevrons

Mrs. Jean Conlon, 1944 Red Cross War Fund chairman for Daly City, was a visitor at a recent meeting of Girl Scout Troop No. 2, which meets each Friday at Grace Church of the Nazarene, Vista Grande and Santa Barbara avenues. She presented chevrons for 26 hours or more service given by the following members of the troop at the time of the drive: Shirley Van Vliet, Barbara Marsh, Ferol Walrod, Rosalie Musante, and Joan Vittori.

Another girl, Mary Lou Montano, although not a member of the troop, worked with this group during the drive and earned her chevron.

Currently, girls of Troop No. 2 are working to achieve their first aid badges. Leader is Mrs. Hazel Marsh.

Now At Daly City Theatre

Jack Carson, Ann Sheridan and Dennis Morgan applaud a police-station rendition of an old-time ballad in "Shine On Harvest Moon" now at the Daly City theatre.

Musical Opens At Local Theatre

The joy and the heartbreak, the glamour and sordidness of life backstage in the early days of the American theatre form the background for "Shine On Harvest Moon" the new Warner brothers musical based on the life of Nora Bayes which opens at the Daly City theatre tonight. Starring Ann Sheridan as Nora Bayes and Dennis Morgan as Jack Norworth, the popular songwriter who became the singer's husband and professional partner, the film is a mixture of gay music and fast-paced story, depicting the well-loved singer's rise from honky-tonks to the glory of a Ziegfeld stage.

A cast consistently excellent includes Irene Manning, beautiful singer of "The Desert Song," Jack Carson, S. Z. Sakall, Marie Wilson and Robert Shayne.

When Norworth discovered his future wife she was still singing to a limited audience in one of Milwaukee's popular honky-tonks, the Golden Horseshoe. Norworth recognized the young girl's singing ability and was instrumental in taking her out of the cafe and putting her onto the vaudeville stage. Jack Norworth himself was called in by Warner brothers to supervise certain portions of the film, particularly that scene which reproduces the actual conditions under which Nora Bayes and her husband composed "Shine On Harvest Moon." According to the songwriter it was easier to write, than to film the song.

Le Roy Prinz directed the colorful dance numbers and Cliff Friend, Charlie Tobias, M. K. Jerome and Kim Cannon contributed three new song numbers—"Time Waits For No One," "So Dumb But So Beautiful," and "I Go For You." The film also includes some old-time tunes made popular by Nora Bayes—the title song, "When It's Apple Blossom Time In Normandy" and "Take Me Out To The Ball Game" among them.

Political Education Wk.

Declaring the thinking of parents is greatly influenced by their children and that messages should be sent into the homes concerning the general apathy of the citizenry in regards to registering and voting, Frank M. Jordan, secretary of state, today urged a "Political Education Week" in California's educational institutions.

Jordan, in a letter to Governor Earl Warren, asked the governor to issue a proclamation setting aside such a week and pointed out school authorities undoubtedly would endorse such action.

"It is understandable that in times of stress, as at present, our citizens are thinking of things that are more directly affecting their lives and overlooking the future effects of this apparent lack of interest in voting," the secretary of state wrote the governor.

"As I see it, it is our duty as executive state officers to do everything within our power to bring to the attention of our citizens a realization of the importance of exercising their right of franchise, but nothing concrete has been done to forcibly bring the matter to their attention.

"The plan I have in mind would start with a proclamation by you calling for a 'Political Education Week.' During this period classes in civics and political science in all our high schools, junior colleges and universities would take up in detail the process of registration and the conduct of elections. The importance of registering and voting would, of course, be stressed in these classes.

"I feel the thinking of parents is greatly influenced by their children, and such a plan would bring a message into the home that should have effect.

"Success of the plan would necessarily require the cooperation of the school authorities and this, I am sure, would be given if you would make the suggestion."

Jordan said the most effective date to hold these classes would be during an election year and before the close of registration. He suggested the week beginning, September 18, for this year's "Political Education Week."

CANNED MUSSELS

Canned mussels are not included in the quarantine order of the State Department of Public Health, Dr. Wilton L. Halverson, director, announces.

"No suspicion is placed on canned mussels. The state order forbids the gathering of mussels, except for fish bait, along the California shore from May 1 until October 31. This department has information that all canned mussels are gathered and packed on the Atlantic coast and therefore do not come under the order," he explained.

The State Department of Public Health places an annual ban on the gathering of mussels from the California coast because the mussels become toxic from ingesting a minute organism, the gonyaulax, which is present in Pacific coastal waters during the summer months. Last year there were four deaths in Humboldt county among persons who ignored the order.

The report on canned mussels was made available by the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare.

MRS. AMERICA AND OPA

Forty per cent of the dry groceries which go into Mrs. America's market basket are printed on official OPA community price lists. And all ceiling prices of meats also are expressed on similar lists at specific cents per pound. In many communities these specific cents per pound ceilings have been established for a number of fresh fruits and vegetables. All dealers are required to post the official OPA ceiling prices of foods. In addition, housewives may obtain special pocket-size lists of official OPA ceilings on groceries and meats by calling at their local OPA boards. These lists provide an excellent guide to Mrs. America to keep her food purchases within ceiling prices.

And speaking of shopping, the War Production Board is urging Mrs. America to take along her own shopping bag or used paper bags for carrying purchases. This extra effort on the part of shoppers will help out in the critical paper shortage. The WPB also urges housewives to accept without wrapping those articles which can be carried just as conveniently in their regular packages.

If the family auto is sold or if you buy a used car, you'll want to get the specific information on ceiling prices from the price clerk of your OPA board. For all used cars, whether sold by individuals or dealers, now are price controlled. In order to find the exact ceiling price for any car the price clerk will need the following definite information: make, year, model, body type, and whether the car has a heater, radio or any special factory built-in equipment.

Here's a chance for mother and dad and older brother to buy certain types of shoes ration free for the three week period ending July 29. Effective, last Monday, July 10, dealers were authorized to sell limited quantities of odd lot shoes to customers without requiring ration stamps. The purpose of releasing this footwear without a shoe stamp is to help dealers dispose of the normal accumulation of broken sizes and other odds and ends which ordinarily are on sale racks. Included among those shoes for which this odd lot clearance may be made are shoes for men and women and sizes one to six in shoes for youths and boys.

And speaking of shoes, you have two currently valid ration stamps—Airplane stamps No. 1 and No. 2 in Ration Book Three. Each stamp is good indefinitely for one pair of rationed shoes.

When is a tenant a landlord also? The OPA rent office has the answer—when a tenant residing in a defense rental area sublets her apartment or even one room in her home she is subject to provisions of OPA rent regulation covering landlords. Thus she is required to register with the defense rental office dwelling accommodations which are sublet. Her landlord files a registration for the property he rents to her. Then she in turn registers the part which she sublets.

OPA Says Tenants Have Obligations To Landlords, May Be Evicted Sometimes

Tenants, who are protected from indiscriminate eviction by OPA regulations, still have certain obligations to their landlords, Henry A. Cross, district rent executive for the federal agency declared today.

Many tenants are under the impression that so long as they pay their rent they cannot be evicted no matter how they care for or utilize their dwelling space, Cross said.

This is decidedly not the case, he added, and scores of tenants have been evicted for violating an obligation of their tenancy or committing or permitting a nuisance in their housing accommodations.

The section of the rent regulation dealing with evictions gives landlords sufficient latitude to prevent heedless destruction or damage of his property. Constant use of the provisions in the regulation with respect to eviction is being made by landlords to protect their property against violations of the obligations of tenancy under which dwellers have rented housing accommodations.

The provision states that a tenant may be evicted, "if he has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose."

Cross emphasized that a nuisance must be of a genuine character and not a fancied grievance or an inconsequential objection to a tenant's behavior. Further, the landlord must follow the procedure laid down in the OPA regulations. Eviction without following this procedure is illegal.

"A vast majority of tenants are orderly persons who take good care of their housing space because it constitutes their homes," Cross said. "However we are constantly confronted with the exceptions, who through ignorance or with deliberate intent, wanton damage or allow their landlords' property to deteriorate or who by their personal conduct create a nuisance or permit a nuisance to exist. OPA regulations are not designed to prevent eviction of tenants who have no regard whatsoever for the rights of landlords."

A lot of fun has been planned and all members and friends are urged to attend.

Three Kinds of Berries Go Under Price Ceiling

Addition of blackberries and red and black raspberries at prices representing a rollback of at least 25 per cent over early season prices, are highlights on this week's market basket price list, the San Francisco District Office of Price Administration announced today.

Ceiling price for blackberries will be 20c per 1-2 pint basket in any point covered by San Francisco community ceilings; for black raspberries, 23c per 9 1-3 ounce basket; for red raspberries 24c per basket in San Francisco Bay area and San Jose, and one cent higher in Vallejo, Monterey, North Bay, and Palo Alto.

Watermelon, also on the market basket list for the first time, are listed at 5c per pound—a distinct saving to those who have paid as high as 10c and 12c in the past weeks.

All other fruits and vegetables remain the same.
